3. Time and place of meeting

A meeting shall ordinarily be held at the office of the Committee, at least, once in a month on the date and time fixed by the Chairman. The Chairman may, at his own discretion or on requisition in writing by not less than one- half of the total number of the members constituting the Committee, shall call an emergent meeting. The Chairman may, for administrative convenience, on a matter urgent and important, which cannot wait till the next meeting, get the opinion of the Committee by circulation of paper amongst the members. The papers so circulated shall, however, be placed before the Committee for confirmation at its meeting.

4. Meeting of convening a meeting and of giving notice thereof

Notice of every meeting with agenda shall be issued by the Secretary of the Committee under the instructions of the Chairman of the Committee, at least, seven days before the date of the meeting. Every such notice shall state the place, the date and the hour of such meeting. Every item of agenda shall be in the form of a regular proposal complete in itself. A copy of the notice shall also be sent to the Vice-Chairman of the Board or any other person authorized by him in this behalf, for information. Papers relating to any subject included in the agenda of any meeting shall be open for inspection to every member at the office of the Committee during the usual office hours. An emergent meeting may be convened at a shorter notice of not less than two days. The meeting shall be held on a working day only.

5. Quorum at meeting

(1) Five members shall constitute quorum at a meeting of the Committee.

(2) If quorum at a meeting of the Committee is not complete within half an hour of the schedule time of the meeting, or if it falls short while the meeting is continuing, it shall be deemed to have been adjourned for the next working day at the same time and place for which no separate notice shall be given.

(3) No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Committee unless there is a quorum.

(4) If a meeting has been adjourned for want of a quorum, no quorum shall be necessary for the adjourned meeting for transacting business.

(5) If any member fails to attend three consecutive meetings without leave of the Committee, it shall amount to a misconduct and negligence on his part. The Committee may proceed to take action against him under Section 50 of the Act.

6. Conduct of proceedings and presidency of the meeting

(1) Any member wishing to bring any proposition before the Committee shall give a written intimation to the Chairman of his intention of doing so, with a draft of the proposition so as to reach the Chairman, at least, ten days before the date of the meeting and every such proposition, with the approval of the Chairman, shall be included in the agenda of the meeting.

(2) Any matter which is not included in the agenda shall not be brought forward for discussion at any meeting except with the permission of the Chairman of the meeting or if the Chairman refuses such permission then by the vote of the majority of the members present.

(3) Every proposition, other than the one brought officially by the Chairman, and every amendment shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another and until so proposed and seconded and reduced to writing under the direction of the Chairman of the meeting, no proposition or amendment shall be discussed.

(4) Amendment to any proposition before the Committee shall be moved after the original proposition has been duly moved, seconded and recorded.

(5) Every proposition, and amendment so moved shall be recorded in the minutes with the name of the proposer and the seconder.

(6) When a proposition or an amendment has been proposed, seconded and recorded, the members present shall be entitled to discuss the same.

(7) The Chairman of the meeting may allot time to different members desirous of speaking on any proposition or any amendment.

(8) When an amendment has been brought to any proposition, the amendment shall be put to vote first and if it is carried, it shall become a substantive proposition and shall be put to vote as such. If it is not carried, the original proposition shall be put to vote. When there are more amendments than one, they shall be put to vote in the order reverse to that in which they were proposed.

(9) Every meeting of the Committee shall be presided over by its Chairman or in his absence, by its Vice-Chairman, but if both are absent, by any one of the members, elected by the members present to act as Chairman for the occasion and such Chairman shall have, for that meeting, all the powers of the Chairman and be designated as such:

Provided that if the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman turns up during the meeting, he shall assume his powers as Chairman from the temporary Chairman.

(10) The Chairman shall be responsible for preserving, order in the meeting and shall decide all points of order that may be raised therein. There shall be no discussion at the points of order unless the Chairman considers it necessary to seek the opinion or advice of any member present and the decision of the Chairman shall be final.

(11) Any member may call attention of the Chairman to a point of order even when a member is speaking. On a point or order being raised, the member addressing the meeting shall resume his seat until the question has been decided by the Chairman.

(12) If any one or more members present at a meeting refuse to obey the ruling of the Chairman of the meeting on any matter, he may adjourn the meeting at once and when he has declared the meeting adjourned, the subsequent proceedings of the meeting, if any, shall be void and shall not appear in the minutes. In all such cases, the Chairman shall record in his own handwriting in the minutes book the reasons for such adjournment unless he is prevented by sufficient cause from doing so.

(13) After calling the attention of the meeting of the conduct of a member who persists in speaking or in arguing upon a matter which in the opinion of the Chairman is irrelevant or in tedious repetition of his own arguments or the arguments used by the other members, the Chairman may direct him to discontinue his speech.

(14) The Chairman of the meeting may direct any member whose conduct, in his opinion, is disorderly, to withdraw immediately from the meeting and any member(s) so ordered to withdraw shall do so forthwith and shall unless recalled by the Chairman, absent himself during that meeting. The Chairman may cause to be summarily removed from the meeting any member who disobeys any order made under these bye-laws.

(15) When a proposition or any amendment has been declared by the Chairman as duly carried, no further proposal for amending it shall be entertained at that meeting.

(16) The Chairman may for sufficient reason, adjourn, any meeting from time to time but no business other than that left over from the previous meeting shall be transacted at the adjourned meeting unless a separate notice and a separate agenda has been issued in accordance with bye-laws.

(17) The Chairman may, for reasons to be recorded in the minutes book, postpone or cancel any meeting called under these bye-laws. This information shall reach the members before the date of the said meeting.

7. Manner of voting

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the Act, rules or these bye-laws, all questions that may come up before a meeting of the Committee shall be decided by majority of votes of the members present and in case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have and may exercise a second or casting vote.

(2) Voting shall be done by show of hands. Voting by proxy shall not be permissible and any member may decline to vote on any subject without assigning any reason therefor.

8. Proceedings of the meeting

(1) Proceedings of the meeting of the Committee shall be recorded in Hindi by the Secretary of the Committee under the instruction and the supervision of the Chairman of the meeting and shall be signed by the Secretary and the Chairman.

(2) Recorded proceedings of the meeting shall be read out in the next meeting of the Committee as the first item on the agenda and the members who were present in the former meeting shall have the right to question the correctness of the recorded proceedings, which may be corrected with such modifications as may be decided upon to bring those in conformity with the facts. In case of any dispute about the correctness of the proceedings, the matter shall be decided in accordance with the majority of the votes of the members who had attended the former meeting and the present.

(3) Proceedings of each meeting shall be recorded in the minutes book kept by the Committee for the purpose and shall be placed on the table of the Committee for reference by the members thereof and shall at all reasonable times and without any charge be open to their inspection. The Secretary of the Committee shall keep the minutes book in his custody.

(4) A resume of every discussion with the number of the votes for and against such motion or amendment shall be recorded by the Secretary under the instruction of the Chairman of the meeting. A complete and accurate record shall be kept in the minutes book to indicate whether a member did not cast vote or voted for or against a proposition or an amendment.

9. General

(1) A member of the Committee may ask for information regarding anything done or purported to be done by the Committee or regarding the affairs of the Committee by the written notice and shall be supplied with such information by the Secretary of the Committee with the prior approval of the Chairman. The requisition for such information shall reach at least, four days before the meeting in the office of the Committee :

Provided that the Chairman may refuse to supply any information disclosure of which, in the opinion of the Chairman, would be against the interest of the Committee.

(2) Except with the written consent of not less than one half of the total number of members of the Committee, no subject once finally disposed of, shall be considered within three months.

(3) No member shall be entitled to attend a meeting in which matter in or against his interest is to be discussed.

10. Power and duties of members

25. Sale of agricultural produce

(1) All consignments of agricultural produce, processed or unprocessed, arriving in the market area of the Committee for the purpose of sale, shall be brought into the principal market yard or subsidiary yard by the farmers/agriculturists/sellers in the first instance. If the farmer/agriculturist/seller does not bring his produce in the principal yard/subsidiary yard of the Committee and intentionally tries to make sale/makes sale of his goods outside the notified yard/subsidiary yard, the stocks of the notified produce shall be recovered/seized as per the provisions of Sections 57 and 58 of the Act or a penalty upto five thousand rupees under Section 104 of the Act may be imposed on the spot against him/them or the person selling on his/their behalf; or both, after giving him/them personal hearing on the spot by the authorised officer of the Committee, or he/they may be prosecuted in the Court of law after giving an opportunity to being heard.

(2) All agricultural produce notified for sale shall be brought into the notified yard/subsidiary yard in such manner and such time as the Committee may specify from time to time.

(3) All vehicles and persons with head-load entering the market yard shall pass through entry gate of the yard after obtaining necessary gate-pass issued by the Committee at the time of entry and on payment of the prescribed per trip fee.

(4) As soon as the vehicle load or head-load arrives at the premises of a commission agent, it shall be incumbent on such commission agent to get them unloaded at the auction site for inspection of the purchasers.

(5) Soon after the transaction is over, the purchaser shall arrange its counting or weighment through a licensed weighman. The weighment or counting slips shall be prepared in quadruplicate on Form B-1 which shall be signed by licensed weighman, seller, purchaser and the commission agent and first copy shall be delivered to the seller, second to the commission agent, third to the purchaser and the fourth shall be retained by the licensed weighman who counted the produce. It shall be incumbent to every commission agent to produce the weighment/counting slips to the officer/official of the Committee for inspection on demand.

(6) On the receipt of the weighment and counting slip the commission agent shall issue his bill in such form as prescribed in the rules or in such form as the Committee may prescribe.

26. Method of sale

(1) All sales shall be effected in lots or by sample, through open auction only and in presence of a representative of the Committee. The poultry/egg shall be sold either by weight or by numbers as per the choice of the farmer. The fish shall be sold by weight only.

(2) Daily auction shall start and end in all blocks in the market at such time as may be decided by the Committee from time to time.

(3) Only licensed buyers shall be allowed to offer bids in auction. All the prospective buyers shall assemble at the auction sites, at least half an hour before the start of the auction.

(4) If any, trader, commission agent or any other person is found trading in contravention of the instructions issued by the Committee in this behalf, the Chairman, Secretary or any other officer of the Committee duly authorized by it, may take his goods into his possession and dispose it of in the manner as may be specified by the Committee after having heard all the concerned parties.

CHAPTER V

Miscellaneous

27. Acceptance of bids

Agricultural produce shall be sold to the highest bidder. The seller, however, in order to avoid distress sale shall have the option to refuse to sell to the highest bidder or to postpone the sale of his produce to a later hour or date.

28. Units of quotation

All licensed traders shall give their quotations only in terms of such unit/units as are specified by the Committee subject to rules, if any.

29. Storage

(1) In case an agricultural produce which is brought into the market yard/sub-yard, remains unsold, the seller/farmer shall be at liberty to get it back or the commission agent concerned and/or seller/farmer may store the produce in the cold storage, if available in the market yard or market area, under intimation to the office of the Committee.

(2) In case the stocks of agricultural produce are taken back by the farmer/seller and are bought outside the market yard/sub-yard, the seller/farmer shall get a proper gate pass from the check post in the yard of the Committee in which the details of the produce going out shall be given. No stock of agricultural produce shall be taken back without proper gate pass.

(3) The owner of the godown/cold storage with whom the agricultural produce has been stored or is withdrawn shall intimate the Committee about the stored produce in Form B-2.

(4) The Committee may issue such directions, as it thinks necessary for regulating the storage of agricultural produce in the market area as well as in the market yard.

30. Trading hours and closing days

(1) The market shall open on all days except Tuesday or any other days fixed by the Market Committee and on other national holidays during the year, as may be decided by the Committee from time to time.

(2) Under the compelling circumstances and only on any particular day or days, the Chairman or in his absence Vice-Chairman with the written consent of two other members of Committee may order that trading may be done at hours other than those specified by the Committee in respect of auction and other market activities.

(3) Only licensed buyers shall be allowed to offer bids in auction to purchase through open auction.

31. Duties of licensed commission agents and traders

(1) Every licensed commission agent shall furnish a weekly return of the purchases and sales by him or made through him in such form as may be specified by the Committee or as may be prescribed in the rules. Along with the return, he shall also deposit the amounts of market fee realized by him from the purchasers.

(2) Every licensed trader shall also submit return/report as may be prescribed under the rule regarding the purchases and sales made by him or made through him within the market area in such form as prescribed under the rules.

(3) It shall be the duty of the buyer or his agent, if any to examine the agricultural produce closely and make a separate note of the quality, etc. of the lots to be sold by the sellers and/or their commission agents, half an hour before the sale time so that he may bid when the produce is auctioned. When the rate is fixed, the transaction shall be entered in the form prescribed for it. The bargain so struck shall be binding on both the parties.

(4) Every trader acting as a commission agent shall keep regular and separate accounts of his sales and purchases. Such an account shall be produced for inspection on demand by the Chairman, or the Secretary and/or the field official of the Committee.

(5) All licensed commission agents shall have their weighing machines, their weights and measures at their shops in the notified yard/sub-yard and weighment and measurement of the produce shall be done within the yard and at the respective shops of the commission agents during the trading hours prescribed by the Committee.

(6) All the sales shall be conducted through open auction only and after the final bid, weighment, or counting of the produce shall be done on the spot.

(7) All licensed commission agents and traders shall maintain stock register and other registers as may be prescribed by the Committee.

(8) Every commission agent shall prepare a receipt in quadruplicate in the Form 'J' prescribed under Rule 26(12) of the Rules and modified by the Committee for the purpose of this bye-law which shall be supplied by the Committee on payment. The original receipt shall be given to the seller at the time of payment of sale proceeds, the second copy shall be submitted to the Committee, the third copy shall be given to the buyer and the fourth shall be retained by the commission agent for his record. Where no commission agent is engaged the buyer shall prepare the receipt in triplicate and shall distribute the same as above.

32. Assistants of traders and commission agents

(1) Traders and commission agents may employ assistants to work on their behalf, in the principal market yard sub-yard and/or in the market area.

(2) The maximum number of such assistants shall be such as the Committee may, from time to time, determine.

(3) The names and addresses of such assistants shall be stated in/along the application for grant or renewal of a licence for a trader and commission agent, as the case may be.

(4) No person other than whose names appear in the licence of a trader and/or commission agent shall be allowed to work in the market area and/or yard/sub-yard on his behalf.

(5) The licence of a trader, commission agent, or broker is liable to be cancelled, if he allows or continues to allow any person/persons whose names does not/do not appear in the register of the Committee to operate in market and/or yard/sub-yard on his behalf irrespective of whether person/persons was/were once on authorized assistant(s) working on his behalf.

(6) The Committee may refuse to grant a licence to a trader or commission agent if in its opinion any one or more of the assistants, whose name(s) is/are stated in their application(s) is/are such that his/their operation in the market area and/or yard/ sub-yard is/are detrimental to the efficient working of the market yard.

(7) On valid grounds the Committee may, at any time, remove any of the names of the assistants from the names appearing in the licence of a trader or a commission agent. The person whose name has been so removed shall not be allowed to work on behalf of this employer any where in the market area and/or yard/sub-yards.

(8) All acts of the assistants shall be deemed to have been performed by their employers, who shall be fully responsible for the acts and omissions of the assistants.

33. Duties of weighmen, measurers and surveyors
