25. Presentation of nomination paper and requirements for valid nomination. -

(1) On or before the date specified under clause (a) of sub-rule (1) of rule 23 each candidate either in person or by his proposer, shall deliver between the hours of 11.00 AM and 3.00 PM to the returning officer during the period and at the place specified in the order made under rule 23, a nomination paper completed as provided by rule 24 and signed by the candidate and by an elector of the constituency as proposer.

(2) Any person who is not subject to any disqualification as an elector under these rules and whose name is entered in the list of electors for the constituency for which the candidate is nominated, may subscribe as proposer, but shall not subscribe as proposer for more than one candidate.

(3) On the presentation of a nomination paper, the returning officer shall satisfy himself that the names and numbers of the candidate and his proposer as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the list of electors:

Provided that the returning officer shall permit any clerical and technical error in nomination paper in regard to the said names or numbers to be corrected in order to bring them into conformity with the corresponding entries in the list of electors and where necessary any clerical or printing error in the said entries shall be overlooked.

(4) A nomination paper received after the date and the time specified under sub-rule (1) of rule 23 and sub-rule (1) of rule 25 respectively shall be rejected.

(5) Where the candidate is an elector of a different constituency, a certified copy of the relevant entries in such list of electors shall, unless it has been filed along with a nomination paper, be produced before returning officer at the time of scrutiny.

(6) Nothing in this rule shall prevent a candidate from being nominated by more than one nomination paper for election in the same constituency subject to the maximum of four nomination papers.

26. Symbol of election. - (1) The Director shall by order, paste on the notice board of the marketing committee and specify the symbols that may be chosen by candidates at an election in any constituency and the restrictions to which their choice shall be subject.

(2) Where at any such election more nomination papers than one are delivered on behalf of a candidate the declarations as to symbols made in the nomination papers first delivered and no other declaration as to symbol shall be taken into consideration even if that nomination has been rejected.

27. Deposits. - A candidate shall not be deemed to be duly nominated for election from a constituency unless he deposits or causes to be deposited with the returning officer, a sum of rupees one hundred in cash at the time of nomination.

Provided that, here a candidate has been nominated by more than one nomination paper for election in the same constituency not more than one deposit shall be required of him under this rule.

28. Notice of nomination and time and place for the scrutiny. - The returning officer shall on receiving the nomination paper under sub-rule (1) of rule 25 inform the person or persons delivering the same, of the day, time and place fixed for the scrutiny of nomination, and shall enter on the nominations paper its serial number and shall sign thereon a certificate stating the date on which and the hours at which the nomination paper has been delivered to him and shall as soon as may be thereafter cause to be fixed in some conspicuous place in his office a notice of the nomination in Form '6' containing descriptions similar to those contained in the nomination paper both of the candidate and of the proposer.

29. Scrutiny of nominations. - (1) On the date specified for the scrutiny of nominations under rule 23 (b) the candidates, one proposer of each candidate and one other person duly authorized, in writing, by each candidate may attend at the time and place specified in this behalf, under rule 28 and the returning officer shall give them all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all candidates which have been delivered as required by sub-rule (1) of rule 25.

(2) The returning officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which maybe made to any nomination, and may, either on such objection or on his own motion, after such summary enquiry if any, as he thinks necessary, reject any nomination on any of the following grounds:

- (a) that the candidate is disqualified for being chosen to fill the seat under these rules;
- (b) that the proposer is disqualified from subscribing a nomination paper under these rules;
- (c) that there has been a failure to comply with any of the provision of rule 25 or 27;
- (d) that the signature of the candidate or the proposer on the nomination paper is not genuine.

(3) Nothing contained in clause (c) or (d) of sub-rule (2) shall be deemed to authorize the rejection of the nomination of any candidate on the ground of any irregularity in respect of a nomination paper, if the candidate has been duly nominated by means of another nomination paper in respect of which no irregularity has been committed.

(4) The returning officer shall not reject any nomination paper on the ground of any defect which is not of a substantial nature.

(5) The returning officer shall hold the scrutiny on the date specified, in this behalf, under rule 28 and shall not allow any adjournment of the proceedings except when such proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by riot or open violence or any causes beyond his control;

Provided that in case objection is raised before the returning officer by any person at any time of scrutiny, the candidate concerned may be allowed time to rebut it not later than the next day, and the returning officer shall record his decision on the date to which the proceedings has been adjourned.

(6) The returning officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same and, if the nomination paper is rejected, shall record, in writing, a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection.

(7) For purposes of this rule, the production of a certified copy of any entry made in the list of electors of the relevant constituency by a candidate/proposer shall be conclusive evidence of the right of any elector named in that entry to stand for elector unless it is proved that the candidate is otherwise disqualified.

(8) Immediately, after all the nomination papers have been scrutinized and decision accepting or rejecting the same have been recorded, the returning officer shall, subject to the provisions of rule 31 prepare a list of validly nominated candidates whose nomination have been found valid in Form '7' and cause it to be affixed on the notice board and shall also record the date on which, and the time at which, the list was so affixed.

30. Withdrawal of candidature. - (1) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in Form '8' subscribed by him and delivered to the returning officer.

(2) The notice shall be delivered to the returning officer before 3 o'clock in the afternoon on the last day fixed for withdrawal of candidature.

(3) The notice may be delivered either by the candidate in person or by his proposer who has been authorized, in this behalf, in writing by the candidate.

(4) No person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under sub-rule (1) shall be allowed to cancel the notice.

(5) The returning officer shall, on being satisfied as to the genuineness of a notice of withdrawal and the identity of the person delivering it under sub-rule (1) cause notice to be affixed on the notice board, in his office in Form '9'.

31. Preparation of list of contesting candidate. - (1) Immediately after expiry of the period within which candidatures may be withdrawn under sub-rule (1) of rule 30, the returning officer shall prepare and publish in Form '10' a list of contesting candidate, that is to say candidates whose nomination papers have been finally accepted and who have not withdrawn their candidature within the specified period.

(2) The said list shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (1) contain the names addresses of the contesting candidates in Hindi as given in the nomination papers and the symbol allotted to each one of them. The names shall be arranged in the said list in the order of the receipt of the nomination papers.

(3) Where a poll becomes necessary, the returning officer shall consider the choice of symbols expressed by the contesting candidates in their nomination papers and subject to any general or special directions issued in this behalf by the Director:

(a) allot different symbols to each contesting candidate as far as practicable, of his choice; and

(b) if more contesting candidates than one have indicated their preference for the same symbol, decide by lot to which candidates the symbol will be allotted.

(4) The allotment by the returning officer of any symbol to a candidate shall be final.

(5) Every candidate shall forthwith be informed of the symbol allotted to him and be supplied with a specimen thereof by the returning officer.

32. List of contesting candidate to be fixed on notice board. - The returning officer shall, immediately after its preparation, cause a copy of the list of candidates to be affixed on the notice board in his office and shall also supply a copy to each of the contesting candidates and to the marketing committee and the Director the same day.

33. Death of candidate before poll. - If a contesting candidate dies and a report of his death is received by the returning officer before the commencement of the poll, the returning officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death, countermand the poll and the returning officer shall report the fact to the Director and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced anew in all respects as if for a new election:

Provided that :

(a) no further nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person who was contesting candidate at the time of the countermanding of the poll; and

(b) no person, who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under sub-rule (1) of rule 30 before the countermanding of the poll, shall be ineligible for being nominated as a candidate for the election after such countermanding.

34. Uncontested election. - In any constituency, if there is only one candidate whose nomination has been accepted, the returning officer shall forthwith declare him or them to be duly elected to fill in the seat or seats as the case may be.

35. Contested elections. - In cases other than those covered by rule 34, a poll shall be taken.

36. Manner of voting at election. - (1) At every election, where a poll is to be taken votes shall be given by ballot in the manner hereinafter provided and no votes shall be received by proxy.

(2) Every elector for a traders' constituency shall have as many votes as there are members to be elected in the constituency but he shall not have more than one vote per candidate. Every elector in weighman and measurer constituencies shall have only one vote.

37. Ballot box. - Every ballot box shall be of such design as maybe approved by the Director.

38. Form of ballot paper. - (1) Every ballot paper shall be in Form '11'.

(2) The names of the candidates shall be arranged on the ballot paper in the same order and in the same language in which they appear in the list of contesting candidates.

(3) If two or more candidates bear the same name, they shall be distinguished by the addition of the occupation or residence or in some other manner as maybe decided upon by the returning officer.

39. Supply of material to the polling station. - The returning officer shall provide for each polling station necessary number of ballot boxes, sufficient number of ballot paper, three copies of the list of electors, a list of contesting candidates and such other papers, stationery and forms as may be necessary.

- (b) put to the person challenged any question or questions necessary for the purpose of establishing his identity and require him to answer them on oath; and
- (c) administer and oath to the person challenged and any other person offering to give evidence.

(4) If, after the enquiry the presiding officer considers that the challenge has not been established, he shall allow the person challenged to vote, and if he considers that the challenge has been established he shall debar the person challenged from voting.

(5) If the presiding officer is of the opinion that the challenge is frivolous or has not been made in good faith, he shall direct that the deposit made under sub-rule (1) be forfeited to the marketing committee concerned and in any other case, he shall return it to the challenger at the conclusion of the enquiry.

42. Issue of ballot paper. - (1) No ballot paper shall be issued to any elector before the hour fixed for the commencement of the poll.

(2) No ballot paper shall be issued to any elector after the hour fixed for the closing of the poll except those who are present inside the polling station at the time of the closing of the poll. Such electors shall be allowed to record their votes even after the poll closes.

(3) As soon as the identity of the elector is established, his left hand forefinger shall be marked with indelible ink on the root of the nail or if the left hand is missing, on the forefinger of the right hand and if such mark already exists, the elector shall not be allowed to vote.

(4) Every ballot paper shall, before issue to an elector, be stamped on the top-right corner with distinguishing mark as the Director may direct.

(5) The presiding officer shall sign on the reverse of all the ballot papers to be issued to electors at the polling stations. At the time of issuing a ballot paper to an elector the polling officer concerned shall record the serial number thereof against the entry relating to the elector in the copy of the list of electors set apart for the purpose.

(6) Save as provided in sub-rule (5) no person in the polling station shall note down the serial number of the ballot paper issued to a particular elector.

43. Voting procedure. - (1) The elector on receiving the ballot paper shall forthwith:-

- (a) proceed to the polling compartments;
- (b) there mark on the ballot paper with the instrument supplied for the purpose on or near the symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote;
- (c) fold the ballot paper so as to conceal his vote;
- (d) if required, show the presiding officer the distinguishing mark on the ballot paper;
- (e) insert the folded ballot paper into the ballot box; and
- (f) quit the polling station.

(2) Every elector shall vote without undue delay.

(3) No elector shall be allowed to enter a polling compartment when another elector is inside it.

44. Recording of vote by blind or infirm voter. - (1) If owing to blindness or other physical infirmity an elector is unable to recognize the symbols on the ballot paper or to make a mark thereon, the presiding officer shall record the vote on the ballot paper in accordance with the wishes of the elector, fold it so as to conceal the vote and insert it into the ballot box.

(2) While acting under this rule, the presiding officer shall observe as much secrecy as is feasible. He shall keep a brief record of each such instance in Form '13', but shall not indicate therein the manner in which any vote has been given.

45. Tendered votes. - (1) If a person representing himself to be an elector asks for a ballot paper after another person has already voted as such elector, he shall on satisfactorily answering questions relating to his identity as the presiding officer may ask, be entitled, subject to the following provisions, to cast a ballot (hereinafter referred to as a "tendered ballot paper" in the same manner as any other elector.

(2) Every such person shall, before being supplied with a tendered ballot paper, sign his name against the entry relating to him in the tendered votes list in Form '14'.

(3) A tendered ballot paper shall be the same as the other ballot papers used at the polling station except that it shall be:

- (a) of the last serial in the bundles of ballot paper issued for use at the polling station; and
- (b) endorsed on the back with the words "tendered ballot paper" by the presiding officer in his hand and signed by him and affixed with a distinguishing mark.

(4) The elector, after making a tendered ballot paper in the polling compartment and folding it, shall instead of putting it into the ballot box give it to the presiding officer, who shall place it in a cover specially kept for the purpose.

46. Closing of poll. - (1) The presiding officer shall close a polling station at the hour fixed on that behalf under rule 23 (1)(d) and shall not thereafter admit any elector into the polling station, Provided that, all electors present inside the polling station before it was closed shall be allowed to cast their vote.

(2) If any question arises whether an elector was present at the polling station before it was closed it shall be decided by the presiding officer and his decision shall be final.

47. Adjournment of poll in emergencies. - (1) If, at election the proceedings at any polling station are interrupted or obstructed by an riot or open violence, or if at an election it is not possible to take the poll at any polling station on account of any natural calamity, or any other sufficient cause, the presiding officer for such polling station or the returning officer shall inform the candidates or their agents in writing about the station and announce adjournment of the poll to a date to be notified later, and where the poll is adjourned by a presiding officer, he shall forthwith inform the returning officer concerned.

(2) where a poll is adjourned under sub-rule (1) the returning officer, shall immediately report in writing the circumstances to the Director and the candidates concerned and shall as soon as may be, appoint the date on which the poll shall recommence and fix the polling station at which and the hour during which poll will be taken and shall not count the votes cast at such election until such adjournment poll shall have been completed.

(3) In every such case as aforesaid, the returning officer in such manner as he may deem fit shall notify the date, place and hours of polling fixed under sub-rule (2).

48. Procedure on adjournment of poll. - (1) If the poll at any polling station is adjourned under rule 47 provisions of rule 52 to 54 shall as far as practicable apply as if the poll was closed at the hour fixed in that behalf under rule 23 (1)(d).

(2) When an adjournment poll is recommended under sub-rule (2) of rule 47 the voters who have already voted at the poll so adjourned shall not be allowed to vote again.

(3) The returning officer shall provide the presiding officer at the polling station at which such adjournment poll is held, with the sealed packet containing the marked copy of the list of electors and a new ballot box.

(4) The presiding officer shall open the sealed packet in the presence of the polling agents and use the marked copy of the list of electors for recording the serial number of the ballot papers to voters at the adjourned poll.

(5) The provisions of the Act and these rules shall apply to every such recommended poll as they apply to the original poll.

49. Fresh poll in case of destruction, etc. of ballot boxes. - (1) If at any election:-

(a) any ballot box used at a polling station unless fully taken out of the custody of the presiding officer is accidentally destroyed or lost, or is damaged or tampered with to such an extent, that the result of the poll at that polling station cannot be ascertained;

(b) any such error or irregularity as is likely to vitiate the poll is committed at the polling station, the presiding officer shall forthwith report the matter to the returning officer.

(2) The returning officer thereupon shall after taking all material circumstances into account, either:-

(a) declare the poll at that polling station to be void, appoint a day, fix the hours for taking a fresh poll at that polling station and notify the day so appointed and the hours so fixed in such manner as may deem fit, or

(b) if satisfied that the result of a fresh poll at that polling station will not, in any way affect the result of the election or the error or irregularity in procedure is not material, issue such directions to the presiding officer under intimation to the candidates or their agents as he may deem proper for the further conducting and completion of the election.

(3) The provisions of the Act and these rules shall apply to every such fresh poll as they to the original poll.

PART II

COUNTING OF VOTES

50. Scrutiny and rejection of ballot papers. - (1) The counting of votes will be taken up soon after the poll is over at the respective polling stations.

(2) The ballot box or boxes used at the polling station shall be shown by the presiding officer to such of the polling agents as are present at that time, that the seals and boxes are intact.

(3) Thereafter, the boxes shall be opened and the ballot papers taken out of such ballot box shall be arranged in convenient bundles and scrutinised.

(4) The presiding officer shall reject a ballot paper:-

- (a) if it bears any mark or writing by which the voter can be identified; or
- (b) if no vote is record thereon; or
- (c) if votes are given on it in favour of more candidates than there are vacancies to be filled in; or
- (d) if the mark indicating the vote thereon is placed in such manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been given; or
- (e) it is spurious ballot paper; or
- (f) it is so damaged or mutilated that its identity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established; or
- (g) it bears a serial number or is of a design, different from the serial number, or design of the ballot papers authorized for use at the polling station; or
- (h) it does not bear the mark which it should have borne under the provisions of sub-rule (4) of rule 42.

Provided that :-

(i) where a presiding officer is satisfied that any such defect as is mentioned in clause (g) or (h) has been caused by any mistake or failure on the part of the polling officer the ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground of such defect;

(ii) a ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground that the mark indicating the vote is indistinct or made than once, if the intention that the vote shall be for a particular candidate clearly appears from the way the paper is marked.

(5) Before rejecting any ballot paper under sub-rule (4) the presiding officer shall allow such counting agent present a reasonable opportunity to inspect the ballot paper but shall not allow him to handle it or any other ballot paper.

(6) The presiding officer shall record on every ball paper which he rejected the letter "R" and the grounds of rejection in abbreviated form either in his own hand or means of a rubber stamp.

(7) All ballot paper rejected under this rule shall be bundled together.

51. Counting of votes. - (1) Every ballot paper which is not rejected under rule 50 shall be counted as one valid vote for all such candidates as there are marks subject to the number of vacancies.
